10 CALIFORNIA CIVIL CODE SECTION 1794

11 4. Chrysler LLC admits that documents available for its review

18 Defendant also lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a
19 belief as to the truth of the allegation that plaintiff purchased the 20 vehicle from a person or entity engaged in the business of 21 manufacturing, distributing, or selling consumer goods at retail and 22 on that basis denies these allegations.

23 5. Defendant admits the allegation in paragraph 5 that
24 plaintiff received a limited express warranty issued by Defendant and 25 admits that the warranty covers the cost of parts and labor needed to 26 repair the parts or components that are defective in material,
27 workmanship or factory preparation, subject to certain exceptions.

28 ///

1 6. Defendant lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form
2 a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 6 and on
3 that basis denies those allegations.

5 complaint that the sale of the vehicle was accompanied by Defendant's
6 implied warranty of merchantability pursuant to California Civil Code
7 sections 1791.1 and 1792. Defendant denies that the duration of an
8 implied warranty is coextensive with the duration of the applicable
9 express written warranty.

10 8. Defendant admits that the allegations set forth in 11 paragraph 8 state the definition of implied warranty of 12 merchantability set forth in California Civil Code section 1791.1.

13 alleged in the second cause of action in plaintiff's complaint.

14 sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegation that 15 plaintiff has little choice but to continue using the vehicle and on 16 that basis denies this allegation. Defendant also denies the 19 restitution.

20 Defendant alleges the following affirmative defenses:

21 FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

27 and business. The contributory negligence and fault of plaintiff
28 diminishes any recovery herein.

1 SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

2 (Contributory Negligence Of Third Parties)

3 37. If plaintiff sustained any damages as alleged in the 4 complaint, that damage was proximately caused and contributed to by

23 40. Any claim for relief alleged in the complaint is barred by 24 the statute of limitations contained in California Code of Civil

4 ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

5 (Failure of Performance)

11 defendant's obligations.

12 TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

13 (Alteration of Product)

14 47. Any damage to the subject automobile was caused and created 15 by changes and alterations made to the vehicle, subsequent to the

(Statute of Limitations re Implied Warranty)

52. Each and every claim for relief based upon breach of implied warranty is barred by virtue of California Civil Code sections 1791.1(c), 1792, 1792.1 and 1792.2.

21 answering defendant.

22 TWENTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

23 (Failure to Properly Revoke Acceptance)

24 59. Plaintiff failed to properly revoke acceptance by either
